VAN RENSSELAER

The name Van Rensselaer signifies "Deer's Lair". Ancient documents show various spellings of the name: Ranslaer, Renzelaer, Rentzelaer, Renselaer, Renselare, Renselart, Renslaer and others usually without the Van except in signatures under their own hands.

Mr. A. J. F. Van Laer, New York State Archivist and a Dutch authority, wrote: "Owing to the sandy soil and the peculiar isolation of the district of the Veluwe (Gelderland) where the Van Rensselaer estate called Rensselaerberg was located, estates in that region remained for generations in the same hands and can in some cases be traced to a very remote antiquity, in fact almost to the time of Charlemagne."

Mr. Eugene Schuyler, an historical researcher of high repute, says that Rensselaerberg "was originally Reddergoed, the possession of which conferred nobility." It lies half way between Nykerk and Putten, a short distance from the Castle of Hell. It was held in part as a fief from the Abbess of the convent of Hoch Elten and part as a fief from the Abbot of Paderhorn. These fiefs were granted in medieval days and remained in the families for generations.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Obert (Eybert, Egbert) Van Rensselaer is the first of the Van Rensselaer name near Harderwijk, Gelderland from whom descent can be traced. He was living in the middle of the 15th century. Very little is known of Obert except that he left one son.

Issue:

+2. i. Wolter, m. Nelle Van Garder.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Wolter Van Rensselaer, son of Obert Van Rensselaer, according to Beernin Vol. XII:142: "he was away from his native district for quite some time. Upon his return he became a burgher of Harderwijk." He married Nelle Van Garder.

Issue:

+3. i. Hendrick Wolter, m. Sweme Van Indijck.

THIRD GENERATION

3. Hendrick Wolter Van Rensselaer, son of Wolter and Nelle (Van Garder) Van Rensselaer, married Sweme Van Indijck; died at Harderwijk 21 June 1526. In 1488, he bought the perpetual lease of the farm belonging to the Abbey of Elten, called the Rensselaer and the Maelstede in the district of Putten, Holland.

Issue:

4. i. Anna, d. after 1554; m. at Harderwijk, Johan Vost.
5. ii. Betje, m. ..... Noggen.
6. iii. Geesje, m. at Harderwijk, Albert Otten.
7. iv. Wolter, d. 1524.
8. v. Hendrick, unmarried.

+9. vi. Johan, m. Derykebia Van Luxoel.

FOURTH GENERATION

9. Johan Van Rensselaer, son of Hendrick Wolter and Sweme (Van Indijck) Van Rensselaer, died before 10 June 1542, buried at Nykerk; married at Harderwijk 20 June 1523 Derykebia Van Luxoel, daughter of Nelis and Rya (Hanegraff) Van Luxoel. She died and he married secondly, Andressken . . . . . .

Issue: (By Derykebia Van Luxoel)

+10. i. Kiliaen, m. Nelle Van Wenckum.

11. ii. Wolter, received on 22 Oct. 1559, half of the farm in Arckemede, near Nykerk, in tenure from the Abbey of Paderhorn upon the refusal of his brother, Kiliaen, to accept it.

12. iii. Grietie, m. Otto Collert.

Issue: (By Andressken . . . . . .)

13. iv. Johan, bur. Harderwijk 1600.

14. v. Hendrick.

15. vi. Bye, m. 1571, Johan Gyginck.

FIFTH GENERATION

10. Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, son of Johan and Derykebia (Van Luxoel) Van Rensselaer married Nelle Van Wenckum, daughter of Claes and Engel (Van der Hell) Van Wenckum who held a tenure of the estate called Hell. Kiliaen died between 1583 and 1592.

Issue:

16. i. Nicholas, lived at Putten; m. Jacomina Schrassert, daughter of Arntsz and Naele (Van Estvelt) Schrassert.

+17. ii. Capt. Hendrick, m. Maria Pafraet.

18. iii. Capt. Johan, d. Deventer 7 Feb. 1601; buried in the church at Nykerk with his twin brother Capt. Hendrick. He married Sandrina Van Erp, daughter of Johan and Phillippina (Van Hornum) Van Erp. On 3 Mar. 1580, the Spaniards, through the treason of Count Rennenberg, had taken the city of Groningen. The States General ordered Capt. Johan Van Rensselaer to muster a company of 100 foot soldiers for the defense of the province. In 1583, he served with the troops under Count Van den Bergh. He and his wife received from the States General a pension of 200 guilders yearly, this to revert after the death of the survivor to the nephew, Kiliaen. No issue.

19. iv. Engeltje, m. Gerrit Willemsz. Their daughter Nelle married Hendrick Van Curler whose son Arent Van Curler settled in America.

20. v. Reynier.

SIXTH GENERATION

17. Capt. Hendrick Van Rensselaer, son of Kiliaen and Nelle (Van Wenckum) Van Rensselaer died at Ostend 6 January 1602 during the siege of the city; married Maria Pafraet, daughter of Jan and Peterken (TerBecke) Pafraet. He lived at Hasselt but was buried beside his twin brother in the Church at Nykerk, Holland.

Issue:

21. i. Maria, m. 1605 Ryckert Van Twiller whose son Wouter Van Twiller was Director General of New Netherlands from 1632 to 1638.
22. ii. Jan, died 1639.
+23. iii. Kiliaen, b. ca. 1585; m. (1) Hillegonda Van Bijler; m. (2) Anna Van Wely.

SEVENTH GENERATION

23. Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, First Patroon of Rensselaerwyck in New Netherlands, son of Hendrick and Maria (Pafraet) Van Rensselaer born at the Fort near Hasselt, Holland about 1585; buried in Oude Kerck, Amsterdam 7 October 1643; married, first, at Utrecht 23 July 1616 Hillegonda Van Bijler, daughter of Jan and Hillegonda (Egberts) Van Bijler, baptized 2 August 1598; buried at Amsterdam 1 January 1627; married, secondly, at Amsterdam 14 December 1627 Anna Van Wely, daughter of Jan and Eleanor (Haeckens) Van Wely, born at Amsterdam about 1601; died there 12 June 1670. Their wedding ring was brought to this country by their youngest son, Reverend Nicholas Van Rensselaer and was used when Kiliaen Van Rensselaer married Dorothy Manson 23 November 1905. It is now in the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Kiliaen was a minor at the death of his father and his guardians apprenticed him to his relative Wolfret Van Bijler, a diamond merchant, to be trained as a merchant. In those days the diamond trade was combined with trade in pearls, articles of luxury and rareties of every description coming from the far East through the Dutch East India Company. The Dutch jewelers found a ready market for their valuable wares at the Imperial Court and smaller German Courts.

Johan Van Wely, a member of the Dutch East India Company, and a son of one of the sisters of Wolfret Van Bijler controlled a diamond business no less important than his uncle Wolfret Van Bijler's. In 1614, Kiliaen was interested in bringing about a merger of the two firms. This was accomplished on 28 February 1614 under the name of Johan Van Wely and Company.

In 1616, Johan Van Wely was sent for by Prince Maurice to come to The Hague and bring with him some diamonds and other precious stones which the Prince wished to purchase. While awaiting the Prince, Van Wely was murdered and his body concealed under a table until it could be taken out and buried in an ash pit.

A few years after the assassination of Johan Wely the firm of Johan Van Wely and Company dissolved, Kiliaen carrying on the business under the firm name of Kiliaen Van Rensselaer and Company, with Jacques L'Hermite as partner.

In 1609, Henry Hudson, returning from one of his western voyages, reported his discoveries of the rich resources of the valley of the Hudson river. The Dutch considered how best to develop this territory which they claimed as their own.

In 1612, their "High and Mighty Lords" the States General of The Netherlands, "with the advice of the Prince of Orange," granted the Dutch West India Company a charter giving it exclusive possession and control of the great domain comprising the states of New York and New Jersey. The governing body was the College of XIX consisting of nineteen delegates from five chambers of managers located in five principal Dutch Cities. The Amsterdam chamber furnished eight of the nineteen delegates, one of whom was Kiliaen Van Rensselaer. He was obliged to subscribe not less than 6,000 guilders to the company's capital.

After futile attempts at settlement of the new territory, the directors approved on 7 June 1629, a charter of Freedoms and Exemptions to "such participants of the said company as may be inclined to plant any colonies in New Netherlands." On Monday the 19th of November 1629, Kiliaen declared himself ready to send a colony to Fort Orange. In due time he controlled 24 miles north and south of Fort Orange and twelve miles back on either side of the river.

As early as 4 August 1632, Kiliaen wrote to his agent, Arent Van Cuyler that he was sending over a wooden model of a church and that the new church should be put on the east side of the river opposite Castle Island. He also stated that near the church there ought to be built a dwelling for the minister and one for the sexton. Rev. Johannes Megapolensis, the first minister of Rensselaerwyck, arrived in 1642 but owing to the failure of the builder to finish the house it was necessary to purchase another one for him. The house which Kiliaen had built was called "Crailo" after the Van Rensselaer estate in Holland. Some of the bricks bearing the date 1630, were made in Holland and were sent over as ballast. They are very hard and of various shapes and a bright terra cotta color. A stone in the cellar wall bears the inscription "KVR 1642 Anno Domini". In 1886 an inscribed tablet was set into the wall of the house reading: "Supposed to be the oldest building in the United States and to have been erected in the year 1642 as a manor house and place of defense known as "Fort Crailo". It was General Abercrombie's headquarters while marching to the attack at Fort Ticonderoga in 1758. It is said at the cantonment east of the house near the old well, Richard Shuckbury composed the popular song "Yankee Doodle".

About 1615, Kiliaen caused to be placed over the leaden caskets of his father, Capt. Hendrick Van Rensselaer and the latter's twin brother, Capt. Johan Van Rensselaer in the church at Nykerk an elaborate stone slab bearing the following Latin inscription: "Johan and Hendrick Van Rensselaer, twin brothers the former while he lived, captain of a company of foot soldiers and farmers, renowned for his great and many services to the republic and his country, perished at Deventer; the latter perished at Ostend at his own station holding his brave spirit to the last breath of life, having left to his descendants, his relations and connections great glory and a great longing for him. Although death overtook when performing deeds of prowess in places widely separated and remote, nevertheless Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, mindful of his filial duty to his much beloved parents and uncle has taken pains that both of his ancestors be laid to rest together under this monument". According to Kwartieren op de graftombe der Van Rensselaers te Nijkerk Wapenheraut 1918, pages 150, 151 the coats of arms shown on this stone are Van Rensselaer, Luxoel, Indijck, Hane (graeff), Van Wenckum, Schouten, Hell, Bylaer indicating marriages with these families.

This grave stone, which during a long period was partly hidden by a stair in the church was removed and placed in the wall next to the pulpit and at the head of the new graves of the two brothers. This was made possible by the generous contribution of Miss Florence Van Rensselaer who was asked by The Netherlands minister to America, Jonkeer van Haersma de With and the President of The Netherlands Reformed Dutch Church, Herr de Graef to unveil this stone. The unveiling took place 22 July 1938 amid a large gathering of State and Church dignitaries. Queen Wilhelmina was to have been represented by her Chancellor of State but he was called to Prague by reason of the impending war.

EIGHTH GENERATION

25. Johan Van Rensselaer, 2nd Patroon of Rensselaerwyck, son of Kiliaen and Hillegonda (Van Bijler) Van Rensselaer, baptized in the Oude Kerk, Amsterdam on 4 September 1625; married in 1655 at Hoevelaken, his cousin, Elizabeth Van Twiller, daughter of Ryckert and Maria (Van Rensselaer) Van Twiller; died 6 May 1662. There is no evidence to show that Johan ever actively interested himself in the management of his father's estate. He never visited Rensselaerwyck and the responsibility of directing the affairs there was left to his brothers Jan Baptist and Jeremias.

Issue:

35. i. Kiliaen, 3rd Patroon, 1st Lord of the Manor, b. ca. 1657; m. Anna Van Rensselaer, daughter of Jeremias and Maria (Van Cortlandt) Van Rensselaer. No issue. He was succeeded by his uncle Jeremias. In 1684, when the British took over New Netherlands it was feared that the estate would be confiscated. However, because of the influence Rev. Nicholas Van Rensselaer had at the court of Charles II the estate was created a manor.
36. ii. Nelle Maria, m. Johan de Swart.

27. Jan Baptist Van Rensselaer, 2nd Director of Rensselaerwyck, son of Kiliaen and Anna (Van Wely) Van Rensselaer, baptized at Amsterdam, Holland 18 March 1629; died there 18 October 1679; married at Amsterdam 14 February 1666 Susanna Van Wely, daughter of Thomas and Susanna Van Wely. Jan Baptist came to Rensselaerwyck not later than 29 June 1651 and assumed the directorship 8 May 1652 after acting as proxy for Van Schlichtenhorst, the acting director. In 1656, he had placed in the Reformed Dutch Church at Albany a stained glass window showing the Van Rensselaer coat of arms quartered with the arms of Pafraet, Ter Beke and Van Wenckum. This window was later removed and placed at the head of the great staircase in the Manor house. In 1658, he resigned the directorship and returned to Holland where he became a prominent merchant of Amsterdam.

Issue:

37. i. Kiliaen, bp. Amsterdam, Holland 16 Jan. 1667; bur. 11 Nov. 1746. After the death of his father he was under the guardianship of his uncle, Ryckert Van Rensselaer. He lived at Rensselaerwyck for a short time but returned to Holland and settled at Vianen where he was a burgomaster.

29. Jeremias Van Rensselaer, 3rd Director, 4th Patroon and 2nd Lord of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck, son of Kiliaen and Anna (Van Wely) Van Rensselaer, baptized at Amsterdam, Holland 18 May 1632; died at "Crailo" Rensselaerwyck 12 October 1674; married at

New Amsterdam 12 July 1662 Maria Van Cortlandt, daughter of Oloff Stevensen and Anna (Lookerman) Van Cortlandt, baptized in the Reformed Dutch Church, New Amsterdam 20 July 1645; died 4 January 1689. Her funeral spoon engraved 4 Jann, Ano 1688/9 is in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. On 3 August 1654, Jeremias sailed from Holland to join his older brother Jan Baptist at Rensselaerwyck. He returned to Holland in 1655 but came back to Rensselaerwyck in 1656. Upon the return of Jan Baptist to Holland, Jeremias assumed full control of the estate.

Issue:

+38. i. Kiliaen, b. 24 Aug. 1663; m. Maria Van Cortlandt.
+39. ii. Anna, b. 1 Aug. 1665; m. (1) Kiliaen Van Rensselaer; m. (2) William Nichol.

42. v. Johannes, died unmarried before 2 June 1704.
43. vi. Jeremias, b. after his father's death.

32. Reverend Nicholas Van Rensselaer, son of Kiliaen and Anna (Van Wely) Van Rensselaer, baptized at Amsterdam, Holland 14 September 1636; died at Rensselaerwyck 12 November 1678; married at Albany, N. Y. 10 February 1675 Alida Schuyler, daughter of Philip Pieterse and Margareta (Van Schlichtenhorst) Schuyler, born 28 February 1658.

No other member of the Van Rensselaer family gained so much notoriety. He professed to have second sight and made predictions which often came true. He predicted the return of King Charles II to the throne of England from his exile in Holland. This came to pass. He studied for the ministry but was not accepted by the Reformed Dutch Church of Holland, thereupon he went to England where he was ordained a Deacon by the Bishop of Salisbury, later a priest after which the King licensed him to officiate in the Reformed Dutch Church at Westminster. This ordination was accepted by the Dutch government for he was appointed Chaplain to Herr Van Gogh, the Netherlands ambassador to the court of Charles II.

As there was no opportunity for Rev. Nicholas to have a church in England, he came to Rensselaerwyck and was installed as pastor of the Dutch Church at Albany by Governor Andros. The Albany church authorities resented this move and in 1676, he was accused of false preaching and in 1677 Governor Andros removed him from office.

He died prophesying that young Robert Livingston, who had been called in to draw up his will and summarily dismissed, would marry his widow. They did marry at Albany, N. Y. 9 July 1679.

34. Ryckert (Richard) Van Rensselaer, son of Kiliaen and Anna (Van Wely) Van Rensselaer, baptized at Amsterdam 28 June 1639; died ca. November 1713; married at Amsterdam 19 February 1651 Anna Van Beaumont, daughter of Anthony and Cornelia (De Koster) Van Beaumont who died in April 1692.

Ryckert came to Rensselaerwyck and lived for some time at "Crailo" later remodeling the farm house at the "Flatts". In October of 1670, he returned to Holland and 1681 accepted a commission for life of the Fief and Manors of Vianene and Ameyde from Hetwuich Agnes Van Brederode, lady of Vianene and Ameyde.

NINTH GENERATION

38. Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, 5th Patroon, 3rd Lord of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck, son of Jeremias and Maria (Van Cortlandt) Van Rensselaer, born at Rensselaerwyck 24 August 1663; died at New York City 16 September 1719 leaving a will in which he requested to be buried "in the burying place northward of the Old Fort at Albany". He married at New York City 8 October 1701 Maria Van Cortlandt, daughter of Stephanus and Gertrude (Schuyler) Van Cortlandt, baptized in the Reformed Dutch Church, New York City

21 April 1690; died before January 1730. On 1 June 1704, Kiliaen released to his younger brother Hendrick Van Rensselaer that part of the Manor known as Claverack, lying on the east side of the Hudson river and consisting of about sixty thousand acres. It was never created into a separate Manor.

Issue:
